Forever to be known by its title of Sunset Bluff, this Hampton Shingle style beach house and all which it has to offer shines brilliantly in its radiance, even from just upon the very first glance. Eloquently situated atop a gracious bluff that rolls down to your very own private and sandy beach, the house gives off a feel more closely related to paradise than anything else. Surrounded with the feeling of tranquility, one could lounge on the wrap-around porch and enjoy the scenic views of the Long Island Sound or kick back in a lawn chair within the completely fenced-in and private acre of grounds, with room for a pool. The Feng Shui of the inside of the house is to die for.
